'Rescued Blockheads' 2018 Calendars & Diaries

Fundraiser

Description

It's Bruno's seventh birthday today but being the selfless soul that he is he doesn't want you to buy him any presents. He just asks that you share this photo to help spread the word that these fundraiser calendars and diary (and Christmas cards that I forgot to put in the photo) are available now. Full details are here: <https://www.ruthlessphotos.com/2018-calendars-diary-sydney>

Bruno's in the Rescued Blockheads one so if you're a fan you should probably buy that one. 100% of the profits from the sale of all these items helps ethical dog charities that receive no public funding. Please lend your support ❤️

Note: If you live in or around Paddington in Sydney you can save yourself postage by picking one up from Rupert&Dora while stocks last!
